Gogie on Rampage; Scots Blank Heaneys

By LARRY ROSE

Soccer was an afterthought Saturday afternoon at Royal Athletic Park as Canadian Scottish earned a 3-0 victory over Heaneys, assorted bruises and a berth in the Victoria and District final.

Scottish today licked their lips, and wounds, in anticipation of next week's final against Esquimalt. And they've every right to look forward to the final after battling Heaney's through 210 minutes of semi-final action.

Heaney's, on the other hand, are at it again today tackling Gorge Hotel at 2.30 at Heywood Avenue Park in a consolation game.

Saturday's outcome was in doubt only for the first 30 minutes. At this point Scottish rapped in three quick goals for their margin of victory.

From here on in it was simply a matter of hit and be hit as both clubs tackled viciously in an attempt to wear down the opposition

Things finally reached a head 25 minutes into the final half when halfback Bernie Tyson of Scottish charged Heaneys' Gogie Stewart, knocking the latter to the ground.

Stewart, fiery Nanaimo soccer and lacrosse star, was shaken up but got up and made a straight line for Tyson.

The former Everton pro punched Tyson several times before throwing his larger foe to the ground.

HAMMER-LOCK

Stewart then threw a hammer-lock on Tyson and proceeded to continue the assault until game officials and players separated the combatants.

Next to feel the wrath of the ired Stewart was Scottish goaltender Dave Unwin who had directed some choice remarks in Gogie's direction.

Stewart broke away from peacemakers who were restraining him and started swinging at Unwin, inflicting a small cut over the goalie's right eye

TO SHOWERS

Referee Jack Adams sent Stewart to the showers. Tyson and Unwin both remained in the game, but it took several minutes to patch up Unwin and resume play.

League commission will rule on Stewart's case when Adams' game report is received and it has been indicated that a possible suspension may be levied.

Scottish goals were scored by centre-forward Bill Ackinclose, the winner, Tyson on his first goal of the season and Taffy Jones.

Canadian Scottish: Dave Unwin; Ernie Brown, Ron Jenkins; Bernie Tyson, Harry Carruthers, Ernie Eastlake; Harry Gibbs, Taffy Jones, Bill Ackinclose, Frank Greely, Bill Scobbie. Subs—Roy Jackson, John Moss, George Whighton.

First Division To Oak Bay

Oak Bay Wanderers, saving all their scoring punch for the second half, blanked JBAA 6-0, at Windsor park yesterday to win the city first division rugby championship and the Barnard Cup.

The game was the second in a two-game, total-point series. Wanderers, who won the opener, 3-0, travel to Vancouver next Saturday to meet either Ex-Britannia or Vancouver Kats for the provincial title.

Stu Wright scored yesterday's only try, and Walter Taite got the other three points on a penalty kick.

Manchester Still Leads

LONDON (CP)—Manchester United blanked Bolton Wanderers, 3-0, Saturday and joined Wolverhampton Wanderers at the top of the English League soccer standings. Manchester, however, has a slight advantage with its superior goal average.

The Wolves, down 2-1 at half-time to Burnley, came back in the second half and gained a 3-3 tie. That result left the defending champion Wolves with 52 points from 37 matches.

Manchester United's victory over Bolton boosted its total points to 52 from 39 matches. The league programs calls for 42 games.

A minute's silence was observed before the start of all league games in honor of Jeff Hall, Birmingham City fullback, who died early Saturday of polio. Hall, 17 times an international star had been ill for 12 days. His team has not been permitted to play by health authorities since March 24. It will resume training Monday.

St. Mirren, a surprise winner after unexceptional league play this season, gained a berth into the Scottish Football Association Cup by blanking Celtic, 4-0. The other semi-final between Aberdeen and Third Lanark will be re-played Wednesday after a 1-1 tie Saturday.

Willie Hits Three Homers As Giants Trounce Indians

It took quite a while for San Francisco's Willie Mays to unload his first home run of the spring season, but when he finally turned the trick Saturday he did things up in a typical Mays fashion.

All Willie did was hammer three four-masters in pacing his Giant mates to a staggering 17-4 romp over Cleveland Indians in a "grapefruit" game at Salt Lake City.

Cleveland used five pitchers in an effort to stop the rampaging Giants from California. These five yielded a total five homers and 21 hits and were bombed for nine runs in the game's final three innings.

Milwaukee's defending National League champs also got into the act Saturday, walloping Don Newcombe and the Cincinnati Redlegs 9-3.

Pittsburgh's youthful Pirates continued to shine, edging Chicago White Sox 10-9 on Bob Skinner's two-run ninth inning single. Chicago Cubs were handed an 8-7 defeat by Boston Red Sox; New York Yankees beat Detroit 6-5; Kansas City trimmed Philadelphia 6-5 and Baltimore beat St. Louis 5-2.

Masters Reaches Final Round With Leonard, Palmer Tied

By MILTON RICHMAN

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI)—Arnie Palmer, dead bent on repeating last year's triumph, and Stan Leonard, gambling as never before to win this big one for the first time, tied for the lead yesterday in the Masters Golf championship with 54-hole totals of 212.

Palmer and Leonard's three-round aggregate was one stroke better than the 213 posted by Cary Middlecoff and three strokees ahead of Charlie Coe, the Oklahoma City amateur, who electrified a surging gallery estimated by some at 40,000 by firing a five-under-par 67 that moved him into fourth place with 215.

Middlecoff, who took a 68 Saturday to go with his first two rounds of 73 and 72, had a chance to move into a tie for the lead with Palmer and Leonard, but lost it when he rimmed the cup on a 15-foot putt on the 17th hole and then went two inches beyond the cup on the 18th with a 20-footer, winding up with pars instead of birdies.

Last four holes of the windup of the Masters golf tournament can be seen over television channels 12 and 7 today beginning at 2 p.m.

The crowd—the largest ever to witness a golf tournament anywhere — saw pre-tourney favorite Sam Snead take a 72 that left him seven strokes back with 219 and Ben Hogan soar to 76 which put him at 223 and virtually eliminated him from contention.

For the second straight day, Palmer had to scramble all over the 6,980-yard Augusta National layout to break par with a 71. He carded a pair of birdies and 15 pars in putting together his 36-35 to go with his first two round scores of 71-70. He is the only golfer who has managed to better par each day.

BEST HOLES

Palmer's best holes were birdie threes on the seventh and 18th. On the par four 365-yard seventh his nine iron was three feet from the pin and he got down in one. He sank a 12-foot pressure-packed putt to earn his final birdie and put him below par for the first time in the day. He also saved a double-bogey on the 17th by sinking a tricky 10-footer.

Leonard, the six-time Canadian PGA champion who was the first-day leader with a 69 and who slipped to 74 yesterday, abandoned all caution in posting his 35-34 Saturday.

The "key shot" of his round came on the par four 445-yard 11th where he drove 250 yards and then asked his caddy for a three iron and boldly went for the pin. His shot, played perfectly, landed two-and-a-half feet from the pin and he sank the putt for one of the four birdies he had all day.

'LITTLE HARROWING'

"This is getting a little harrowing," said the 44-year-old long-ball hitter from Vancouver, B.C., "but I think I can struggle out there again tomorrow. I've never led in the Masters before and I had to gamble to get back in front today, but who knows how this thing is going to turn out?"

Still in the running with the four leaders were Billy Joe Patton, Fred Hawkins, Billy Maxwell, Walt Burkemo and Jack Fleck, all four strokes off the pace at 216.

Two of the 44 who qualified for the final two rounds dropped out yesterday. Veteran Byron Nelson was forced to quit because of a virus infection while Australian Peter Thomson was disqualified, automatically, when he signed the incorrect card presented by his playing partner, Chick Harbert. Thomson, at 218, still had an outside chance.

Ron Mecredy Top Shooter

In a two-range .303 shoot from 200 and 600 yards yesterday at Heals Range, top scorer over more than 40 riflemen was Ron Mecredy of the Canadian Scottish with a 49 at 200 and a 47 at the difficult 600-yard point for 96 points.

Const. Bob Walker, RCMP was second with 49, 46 for 95 and Eileen Learoyd, Canadian Scottish was third with 47, 46 for 93.

Leading scores:

Ron Mecredy, CSR, 96; Bob Walker, RCMP, 95; Eileen Learoyd, CSR, 93; Bert Botten, RCN, 92; Franie Morse, CSR, 92; Maj. J. Roberts, CSR, 92; S/Sgt. D. Meeredy, CSR, 92; Don Grant, CSR, 91; W. Morrison, Alta. 91; Smokey Green, PPCLI, 91.

F. Daniel, RCMP, 89; Pat Barclay, Cdt. 89; Ollie Nordby, CSR, 88; Bill McCoubrey, CSR, 88; Pete Lunn, CSR, 85; Pat Burch, Air Cdts., 83; H. Wells, PCRA, 83; D. Jack, CSR, 81; J. Hill, PCRA, 81; Maj. W. Orchard, 5th, 80; Angus Keiller, 5th, 78.

Others counted out.
